
Mission Statement

The College Consortium for International Studies, (CCIS) provides a broad spectrum of quality international education opportunities abroad.

Vision

CCIS is committed to expanding opportunities for students to participate in high quality and affordable international education study abroad programs in diverse locations.

Values

Excellence

Affordability

Accountability

Participation

Service

Support

Safety

Advocacy

Transparency

Diversity

One Organization,

128

Members

&

*96 Study Abroad
Programs*

In

31 Countries

CCIS

2000 P St NW Suite 503
Washington, DC 20036
Phone: 202-223-0330
Fax: 202-223-0999
Email: info@ccisabroad.org

*College
Consortium for International Studies*

2010 - 2011

Membership Benefits

As a member of CCIS, you'll enjoy being a part of a group of experienced international educators who share your interests and commitments!

- Students gain immediate access to over 96 study abroad programs in over 31 countries diversified by subject matter, location, duration, and cost.
- With membership, individual contractual agreements with overseas host institutions are unnecessary for CCIS-approved programs.
- Access to scholarships open exclusively to member institutions
- Faculty and administrators can participate in professional development seminars; familiarization visits to program sites abroad, and CCIS annual conferences at discounted rates.
- Regular member institutions can also participate in consortium governance and program sponsorship.

Regular and affiliate membership is open to regionally accredited colleges and universities in the U.S. and its territories. Foreign institutions may become members through a sponsorship agreement with a U.S. member.

Study Abroad Programs

Study abroad programs are approved by the CCIS Academic Programs Committee and are developed and sponsored by member institutions. Listed below are just some of the exciting study abroad destinations currently available:

Argentina	Germany
Australia	Greece
Belize	India
Bulgaria	Ireland
Canada	Italy
China	Japan
Costa Rica	Mexico
Czech Republic	Morocco
Denmark	New Zealand
Dominican Republic	Peru
Ecuador	Russia
England	Scotland
France	Spain
	Switzerland

Professional Development Seminars

Professional Development Seminars acquaint faculty and administrators with important themes and aspects within a given country or region, in order to promote international/intercultural understanding.

Annual Conferences

The CCIS annual conferences provide members, prospective members, and host institutions colleagues from abroad, the opportunity to discuss issues and current events in the field of international education.

Mark Your Calendar!

The 22nd Annual CCIS Conference will be held March 2011 in Washington, DC.

Membership Facts

128 U.S. members

58 Two-year institutions:

70 Four-year institutions:

23 International Members

Board of Directors

CCIS is a non-profit membership organization with a Board of Directors and committees that establish policy for the organization.

CCIS Washington

CCIS Washington markets the international programs of its members and provides information on CCIS-approved study abroad programs, professional development seminars, and annual meetings. For more information about CCIS and becoming or study abroad opportunities, contact us today!

CCIS

2000 P St NW Suite 503
Washington, DC 20036
Phone: 202-223-0330
Fax: 202-223-0999
Email: info@ccisabroad.org