Program Overview

Study or Study and Intern in London for a Semester

Study, intern, and explore! FIE's program in London gives students the opportunity to experience firsthand this complex society through interdisciplinary coursework as well as tailored academic internships. Students take an FIE Key Course, focusing on an aspect of British Life such as British Life and Business; Visual Media; Europe or Culture; two to three elective courses, and choose one of two pathways: Study or Study & Internship.

With FIE London you can pursue studies for just about any major imaginable with elective courses available in business, communications, history, literature, politics, theater, music, health, writing and much more. Field trips, guest lectures by London-based specialists, site visits and other program activities are integrated into all FIE courses. Through FIE, you can arrange your semester to fit your academic goals while also doing an internship with a small-to-mid size British company or non-profit.

Academics & Program

Courses:

Study

With FIE London you can pursue studies for just about any major imaginable. Students can choose from over 30 electives from these options:

- Arts, Literature, and Theatre
- Contemporary Britain
- Global Business
- Global Studies
- Health Sciences
- History and Politics
- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Media and Communications
- Peace, Conflict, and Social Justice

Unless otherwise specified by their home institution, most students in London enroll in one of FIE's Key Courses, which analyze British life through a particular lens (Business, Culture, Europe, or Visual Media). In these courses, students contextualize their experience in London. Students participating in the Study & Internship or Study & Service Internship programs will be enrolled in a corresponding Experiential Education Course.

KEY COURSES (Choose one per semester):

- British Life and Business
- British Life and Cultures
- British Life and Europe
- British Life and Visual Media

Study + Internship

If you think that you can combine professional development with new career options (and a few fish and chips on the side), you've come to the right place.

Fast-track your career in almost any field as you level-up with an international internship in London. Beyond impressive resume/CV additions, new office-friendly skills, and professional connections that'll benefit your career loooooong after you return home, an international internship in London with FIE will stretch your comfort zone, deepen your understandings of the global marketplace, and inspire your future vocation.

Your studies are paired with an FIE internship placement at a small-to-medium sized London company. Classes include your International Internship Course (IIC), which integrates your internship with classroom seminars — the perfect setting for reflecting and analyzing your work experience. You will also take an FIE Key Course and can sign up for optional electives (depending on your program term).

FIE COURSES

In addition to your International Internship Course (IIC) and the FIE Key Course, you can choose a few electives from this smörgåsbord of options:

- Arts, Literature and Theatre
- Contemporary Britain
- Global Business
- Global Studies
- History and Politics
- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Media and Communications
- Peace, Conflict and Social Justice

Student Life & Housing

Student Life

FIE is committed to providing students the opportunity to engage and explore their surroundings and offers optional field trips and study tours, many of which are highly discounted, outside of the academic excursions. Students are also informed of local cultural events and extra-curricular activities. Learn more here.

Housing

FIE's student residences are located in some of the most vibrant and most sought after of London, a short Tube ride or walk away from Foundation House study center. All FIE student housing and study facilities are in the city center Zone 1 locality and well-served by the 24-hour public transport system. Residing in Zone 1 allows you to easily visit and familiarize yourself with all the city has to offer, from museums to clubs and cafes. In South Kensington, students live in fully-furnished converted 19th Century townhouses with one to three roommates. Common living and state-of-the-art kitchen areas in each residence allow students to interact frequently with each other. Student residences in other areas of the city may be purpose built or have more modern amenities. Learn more about the accommodations and virtual tours of our student residences here.
