Academics & Program

The University of Limerick is located in Limerick, the third largest city in Ireland. Founded as a Viking fortress over a thousand years ago, Limerick today contains many architectural reminders of the city's past and offers a variety of cultural, artistic and theatrical events for students. Galway, Clare, Cork, Tipperary, Dublin and Kerry are all within a day's excursion from Limerick. The University of Limerick site was formerly a great estate on the banks of the river Shannon, three miles from Limerick city. Facilities include modern, well-equipped classrooms, a student center with a theater and an art gallery. The University has gained a national reputation for its programs in Business and Engineering, and its campus offers modern, state-of-the-art technology in its programs.

Course Offerings

The study abroad program at the University of Limerick is designed to meet the learning needs of American and other foreign students. Students may choose from hundreds of fully integrated courses at the University in the following Faculties: College of Humanities, College of Business, College of Engineering and Science, and College of Education. Course offerings are provided well in advance in order for students to choose from the wide range of courses available.

Academic Highlights

The University of Limerick is an independent institution with full degree-awarding powers and a wide spectrum of programs of teaching and learning, research and community service. The University’s mission is to promote and advance learning and knowledge through teaching, research and scholarship in an environment which encourages innovation and upholds the principle of free inquiry and expressions. Limerick offers students an academic environment... that supports optimal intellectual growth and personal development and is characterized by principles of fairness, equity and integrity.

Student Life & Housing

Student Life

The program immerses students into the academic and social life of the university by providing field trips and on-campus activities. Student activities include 60 student-run clubs & societies with almost two thirds made up of sporting clubs on campus. The support network within the University of Limerick allows these Clubs & Societies to avail of the resources on offer from the Students Union, the University of Limerick Sports Department and the University of Limerick Arts Office.
