Program Overview

Known as the 'city of sails,' Auckland is an excellent location to study for city and ocean lovers. New Zealand's largest cosmopolitan city, Auckland is an urban environment within close proximity of beautiful beaches, hiking trails and several stunning holiday islands. It offers a sub-tropical climate and fosters a passion for outstanding culinary delights, good wine and shopping.
Based on the North Shore of Auckland, the Massey University Albany campus with 7,000 students was established more than 15 years ago in one of the North Shore's fastest growing areas. The campus offers modern, Spanish-architectural styled buildings with friendly students and staff, state-of-the-art facilities, and a unique atmosphere highly conducive to study. Downtown Auckland is a short ride across the Auckland harbor bridge.

Academic Highlights

Massey Auckland offers undergraduate and postgraduate programs with more than 70 majors. Teaching is interactive, progressive, and research led. The Auckland campus offers a performing arts theatre, a trading room for finance students, a high-technology business incubator, and much more.
