Program Overview

Cosmopolitan Buenos Aires is Argentina's capital and largest city, and truly one of the great cities of the world. The culture and traditions of Buenos Aires, an exhilarating mix of Latin American and European influences, wait to be explored. The Universidad de Belgrano is situated in a quiet residential area, and offers easy access to the rest of the city via public transportation. Students participating in the CCIS Buenos Aires Program can take classes in Spanish as a Second Language, Argentine and Latin American culture courses in both Spanish and English, or directly enroll in classes for local students at the Universidad de Belgrano. All levels of Spanish proficiency are welcomed.

Universidad de Belgrano in Buenos Aires

Established in 1964, Universidad de Belgrano is situated in the lovely Belgrano district of Buenos Aires enrolls around 12,500 students. In addition to the 9 academic departments available to matriculated students, it also boasts one of the best International Student programs in Argentina. UB's students come from across Argentina, Latin America, and the world--nearly 2,000 international students are drawn to its programs.

Modern facilities house classrooms and offices, and provide the base for numerous cultural and athletic activities.

Intensive Language Program

Ideal for students who wish to improve their Spanish language skills, this program offers intensive language courses at the beginning, intermediate, high intermediate, and advanced levels. Students complete two course levels and earn a total of 12 semester (20 quarter) credits. In the first course, students earn 6 semester (10 quarter) credits. During the second course, students advance one language level and earn 6 semester (10 quarter) credits.

Total Immersion Program with Argentine Students

This program allows students with advanced Spanish proficiency to enroll in a combination of courses in over 30 different academic departments and electives from the Language & Culture Program. Students typically enroll in 3 or 4 classes and earn 12 to 16 semester (18 to 24 quarter) credits.

Eligibility: Students must have completed at least 5 semesters or 7 quarters of college-level Spanish (or the equivalent) prior to departure.
Intensive Language Pre-Session
An Intensive Language Pre-Session is also available at the beginning of each term for students attending the PEAL and Total Immersion programs and is worth an additional 6 semester (10 quarter) credits. This session is highly recommended to adequately prepare students for departmental classes with Argentine students. Refer to the Intensive Language Program for course level information.

Student Life & Housing

Student Life

Interaction with locals and other international students is key to a successful study abroad experience. Many campus activities, e.g., Noche Internacional, showcase UB's strong international student program. Joining a student club or sports team is a great way to meet local students--soccer, running and yoga are just a few options. Attending concerts, trying the tango, or spending a lazy Sunday afternoon picking through the colorful streets and flea market of San Telmo are just a few of the possibilities. There's so much to discover in and around Buenos Aires-one can even visit neighboring Uruguay for the day! Learn more about sports at UB: http://www.ub.edu.ar/deportes.php

Housing

Students at UB have the option to participate in a homestay or to stay in a residence hall or student apartment. Additionally, if a participating student has friends or family in the area they would like to stay with, they can make the choice to opt out of UB housing arrangements.

Students are provided lodging with an Argentine host family, which allow students to further develop their language skills outside of a classroom setting and increase their understanding of modern Argentine culture. The assigned host family is likely to live within easy reach of the university in a pleasant, secure neighborhood; the daily commute will be no more than a short bus ride or a reasonable walk. The home might be found in a century-old heritage structure or a contemporary apartment building. The program fee includes a private room with two meals per day (breakfast and dinner).
