Academics & Program

GRINT Centre for Education and Culture in Moscow

Course Offerings

GRINT Center for Education and Culture program seeks to involve students personally and actively with the Russian people and their language, history, art, and traditions. In addition to a required intensive Russian language course (10.0), which is taught at all levels by highly experienced teachers, students earn up to 16 undergraduate credits.

Courses offered: Russia Today, General Survey of Russian History and Lecture Series, Survey of Russian Literature (XIX-XX Centuries), and Survey of Russian Cultural History in Excursions (3.0 semester hours each). In addition to the academic curriculum, internships are open to students at any level of Russian, but some internships do have language requirements.

A five-day excursion to St. Petersburg in the middle of the semester is included in the program. The program is open to students at any undergraduate level with a 2.5 GPA.

Academic highlights include intensive Russian language classes in a small (4-6 persons) groups, lecture courses taught in English, weekly visits to the best Moscow theaters, concert halls, and sport arenas, and weekly field trips and culture visits to the major Moscow places of interest.

Credits: Up to 16 semester credits
