Program Overview

Copenhagen is a little bit off the beaten track, which is exactly why it is so interesting. A cosmopolitan capital and university center of 1.5 million people, Copenhagen is a safe and hospitable city that combines medieval charm with modern lifestyles and easy access to the rest of continental Europe.

The CSI sponsored program is through the DIS Study Abroad in Scandinavia, an internationally renowned study abroad organization affiliated with the University of Copenhagen. The DIS program is located at the very center of medieval Copenhagen in a beautifully restored building from 1789, which includes a library, student lounges, computer labs, student advising and information services, architecture studios, and a few new classrooms. The program is challenging but manageable; courses are taught in English by Danish faculty, on a level comparable to selective universities.

Academics & Program

See the DIS Summer Course website for the updated course list, full course and study tour details, syllabi, and prerequisites.

DIS offers 3-week 3-credit and 4-week 4-credit courses within a variety of academic fields. Students can choose to enroll in one course for 3-4 credits in each session. In Session I, the courses run for 3 weeks in Copenhagen. In Session II and III, the courses include a 5-day study tour in Europe. There is also a 6-credit Lab & Research session as well as a 7-9 credit Architecture & Design session.

Credits: 3-9 credits
Instructor's Language: English, other than language courses

Student Life & Housing

Each three-week program includes a one-week study tour. Program participants may choose between living with other DIS students in a DIS Residential Community and sharing a European-type student residence hall called Kollegium with Danish or other international students from various universities and colleges.

For more information about housing, visit DIS Summer housing website.
