Program Overview

IPAG Business School is a private, professionally-oriented school with campuses in Paris and Nice. The Nice campus, in the south of France, offers access to cultural attractions of the French Riviera, including a jazz festival, opera, and other activities and events.

IPAG specializes in international business and through its network of alumni, IPAG students have access to the European business community. IPAG is host to students from all over Europe, the Americas and Asia. Nice, on the French Riviera, benefits from its outstanding Mediterranean climate and associated outdoor and indoor activities in all seasons. IPAG is located minutes away from Cannes which is famous for its International Film Festival.
