One of the ICS housemothers has been a professional cook and caterer for decades and offers cooking classes for those of our students who wish to learn how to prepare the most typical and delectable dishes of Spain.

Each class costs 7 euros. You can sign up for any one of them, or all of them.

First, you will learn to cook like a Spaniard and then you will get to eat the final product! (Rosa provides the beverages) !

Classes are two hours long: from 7 - 9 pm.

What better way to start off the cooking classes than with the classic Spanish Paella?! You will learn how to prepare one of Spain's most loved and internationally renowned dishes of all. It's a delicious, healthy and most colorful dish that just about everyone loves!

Classes are both instructive and really fun!!
