PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Hybrid Program

Veritas University's Hybrid study abroad program combines online/virtual coursework with students from Costa Rica and different parts of the world and an immersive one-month experience in Costa Rica. Students enrolled in courses with a laboratory or field-work component will have the opportunity to complement their studies with hands-on field trips and excursions while immersing in the Costa Rican culture for 4-weeks!

Virtual Courses will run for the entirety of the term on Veritas' Learning Management System. Students will be able to connect with students from other parts of the world and have the flexibility to connect to a course live or at another time that is convenient for students!

Once students arrive in Costa Rica, students will stay with host families living in the vicinity of the University. Homestay includes lodging in a private room, breakfast and dinner, and weekly laundry service.

Students enrolled in courses that have a field/lab work component to them will participate in excursions during weekends to complement their studies with real-life experiences. Students who choose to take courses without fieldwork can take advantage of activities on campus and Veritas adventure and travel office to explore beautiful Costa Rica.

Students who choose the hybrid program option will obtain one (1) additional credit for courses that have a field-work or lab component attached to them.

Virtual Program

Students will have the opportunity to take Veritas University courses fully-online. Virtual Courses will run for the entirety of the term on Veritas' Learning Management System. Students will be able to connect with students from other parts of the world and have the flexibility to connect to a course live or at another time that is convenient for students!

Coursework

Spanish Language Courses: Veritas offers intensive Spanish Language courses at all levels. Spanish levels run for 4-week blocks "meeting" for 3 hours a day, 5 days a week.

English-taught Electives: Veritas offers elective courses in the fields of art, architecture, business, communications, economics, environmental impact and sustainable development, history, literature, management, marketing, politics, psychology, tropical ecology, and tropical marine biology. Many courses take a Latin American perspective giving you a deeper understanding of the issues and challenges facing the country and its region.
